

Need a Ride?

New ridesharing apps are picking up. Here's what you need to know.

20%

The percentage of respondents to a University of California, Berkeley, survey who would be willing to use real-time ridesharing at least occasionally¹

TNC

Shorthand for Transportation Networking Company, also known as a ridesharing company²

Let's use a TNC!

Umm, what?

42

The number of states (including the District of Columbia) where users can grab a rideshare ride (Caveat: This number changes quickly, so by the time you read this it's probably already outdated.)³

LIABILITY

The most common type of insurance offered by rideshare companies for its drivers.⁴

Not offered by most companies? Comprehensive and Collision coverage.

Liability covers other people's expenses if a driver causes an accident—but not the driver's.

COMPREHENSIVE AND COLLISION

Lack of coverage means that drivers may have to pay out of their own pockets if something happens to their car while they're carrying passengers.
